CIRCULAR

The Kashmir University Youth Club under the aegis of Department of Students Welfare is going to observe the international day against Drug Abuse and illicit trafficking to encourage awareness about the detrimental effects of drug abuse and to promote efforts to combat illicit drug trafficking. The department aims to organise a students convention to raise awareness about ill-effects of drugs and to inspire the common masses, officials and students community to take action to protect the precious human lives. This year's world Drug day campaign focuses on "The Evidence is Clear: Invest in Prevention".

Apropos, all the / Heads / Directors/ Coordinators / of various centres and Institutes are hereby requested to depute 20 students positively from their concerned departments for their participation in the said students convention scheduled to be held on 26/06/2024 at 10:30 A.M at the Naseem Bagh Youth Division, DSW.
